

Stacey Hall

Author, Speaker, Radio Host

Stacey Hall is the catalyst for the world-wide Chi-To-Be! Movement – a growing generation of people overcoming hopelessness and dependence on others and now committed to their own self-empowerment, self-fulfillment, and self-achievement for whole-life success. She provides practical ways for shifting our focus from being agitated about old 'systems' and 'organizations' falling apart to an embracement of the opportunity now created for greater personal empowerment and self-fulfillment...and lasting prosperity!

"I am truly delighted with your presentation of the attraction theory. I am a member of the SUN (Success Unlimited Network), an accredited group of coaches. I put your web site up on the resource board. I also give it to all my coaching clients. Your method is so easy to understand and apply to our lives." – Teri Haggerty

"I would suggest consideration of Stacey Hall as a session speaker. Her presentation is a fast-moving, interactive session that really does work! I am experiencing a revitalization of dormant accounts, as well as acquiring new accounts that I can positively attribute to their plan. My financials speak for themselves...I am having one of the best years of the last 10 years! It is my sincerest wish that each of you have the opportunity to tap into Stacey's philosophy and realize the power that comes as a result." – Richard Stanley, owner of My Printer, Member, PrintImage International

"After your presentation, I now know that my business depends on my ability to be a lighthouse for those business owners who can benefit from the unique set of skills, values and traits that I can bring to them; that marketing my business doesn't have to involve hours of tedious activities that I do not enjoy, but can involve things I enjoy doing; that my business is, therefore, an extension of myself; that my business becomes MUCH more enjoyable when I am not pursuing random prospects but attracting perfect clients." – Warren Coughlin

"After hearing your presentation and creating my Strategic Attraction Plan, I have received three new paying clients, with a fourth all but signed up. Another client has returned to complete her coaching. That's at least £2,400 worth of new coaching revenue, and it's only Tuesday morning! Now, I am recognising how many of the qualities of my perfect client are naturally present in my current clients. I have a far clearer picture of what my marketing is seeking to achieve now. I am thoroughly looking forward to the next stage of my coaching career. Thank you for your wisdom and inspiration." – Sam Deane

Having reached a point of complete physical, emotional, and mental depletion in 2005, Stacey Hall declared, 'I want to learn how to heal my heart and then help others to heal their hearts'.

Those words launched a six-year journey of self-discovery. Today, having brought her self back from a life-threatening illness, Hall understands all too well the toll that dealing with financial and emotional stress takes in depleting one's strength and diminishing one's sense of personal power.

It's this understanding that inspired her to write 'Chi-To-Be! Achieving Your Ultimate B-All' to provide hope to everyone who feels dis-empowered, disillusioned, and dis-heartened as a result of struggling hard to achieve their goals.

Her message: 'BE Empowered – BE Powerful - and Keep Your Eye on Your B-All!' has become the rallying call for the world-wide Chi-To-Be! (pronounced 'Chee') Movement that is uplifting the globe with Commitment, Harmony and Inspiration...one person at a time!

Members of the Chi-To-Be! Movement are mastering a practice of self-empowerment, self-intention, and self-achievement based on the messages in her new book, 'Chi-To-Be! Achieving Your Ultimate B-All'. Stacey shares, "These messages, known as Energy Surges, share the process of aligning one's intentions to activate one's intuition to attract all one desires with velocity and ease!"

She is also a Licensed Spiritual Healer, a Certified Healing Coach, a Certified Aromatherapy Coach, a CARE-Certified Raindrop Technique Practitioner, as well as a Licensed and Certified NIA Technique Instructor.

Stacey hosts two weekly internet radio shows 'AromaWellness in the Palm of Your Hand!' and "The Chi-To-Be Experience".

Since she first began sharing her paradigm-shifting Strategic Attraction Planning Process methodology in 1996, thousands of small business owners, corporate executives, entrepreneurs, as well as sales and training teams, have been transformed into powerful magnets that attract the most profitable customers and clients to their doors and web sites.

'Attracting Perfect Customers...The Power of Strategic Synchronicity,' which she co-authored and which features her 'Strategic Attraction Planning Process,' has been translated into numerous languages since its publication in 2001 by Berrett-Koehler Publishers.
